Sch. Reporter, Capt. Levi Nickerson, stocked $2600 as the result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $60.

The demand for foreign salt mackerel is light, owing to the continued receipts of shore mackerel. The receipts are all from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, and are 3's. They are quoted at $10 to $10.50 per bbl.

The receipts of fresh mackerel the present week have been 1600 bbls., mostly from shore off Cape Cod and Georges. A few large and mediums have been received from Nova Scotia.

The arrivals of salt mackerel this week are of unusually good quality for this time of the year. The receipts to date have been about 28,000 barrels, and is the largest catch to date since 1885, when the catch was 32,973 bbls.
